

A photograph of a woman and three children in a makeshift shelter. The woman, wearing a brown headscarf and a yellow t-shirt with 'ENJOY' and a butterfly graphic, stands in the doorway of a structure made of corrugated metal and wood. Three children are outside: a boy in a black jacket stands looking at the woman, a girl in a pink jacket sits on a rock, and a younger child in a blue jacket and blue boots stands nearby. The ground is dirt and the background shows other similar structures.
